It Ain t Easy Bieng Me - Chris Knight

Hey guys!! Happy new year again! This is a simpler version i figured out for those of you just learning.. The other one I submitted is Right.. this one is just simpler and sounds pretty darn close...

Sounds better/more correct if played with a Capo on 1st fret.

It Ain t Easy Being Me

G Em D C

[Verse]

G Em D C
There ought to be a town somewhere named for how I feel
G Em D C
Yeah I could be the mayor down there and say welcome to Sorryville
G Em D C
It wouldn t be on a map nowhere you might say that it don t exist
A C D
But if you make enough wrong turns it d be hard to miss
G Em D C
There ought to be a bridge somewhere they could dedicate to me
G Em D C
I d probably come to the ceremony with a can of gasoline
G Em D C
Walk on over to the other side and there I d light a match
A
And sit and stare through the smoke and flames
C D
Wondering how I m gonna get back...

[Chorus]

C G
Why do I do the things I do
Am Em
Was I born this way am I a self made fool
C G
I shoot the lights and I curse the dark
Am Em
I need your love but I break your heart...
C G

And I know the words that ll bring you back

Am

Em

But I don t say nothing as I watch you pack

C

G

A

I had to work to be the jerk I ve come to be

D

G

Em D C

It ain t easy being me

G

Em D

C

There ought to be a sideshow act for freaks like me

G

C

Yeah I could be the star of the show with my name on the marquee

G

C

In a room with a big red button that says danger do not touch

D

Twice a day I d mash it down and you could watch me self-distruct

(repeat chorus)
