verse 1

G

Well i was out cruising, getting late and i was losing

D

When i saw you walking my way

So nonchalant, i bet you get what you want

G

But so do i and i ain t losing today

Well your hips were swinging and your jeans were clinging

D

You were driving me out of my mind

On a hot afternoon when there s nothing to do

G

You re not the sort of thing a fellow should find

verse 2

G

So i pulled on over, you tossed your hair off your shoulder

D

When you turned and you looked my way

But you would have died or you d have skinned me alive

G

If i d have said what i wanted to say

So being polite said what you doing tonight

D

Said: just so happens i m free

You got all the right curves and all the right words

G

And that s alright by me

C

G

Oh carol, you got me eating my heart away

D

You got me counting my nights and days

G

Oh i m floating on the milky way

C G

Oh carol, nobody s done it before

D

Oh baby, you ve opened the door

G

Oh carol, you can do it some more

verse 3

Well if you re ready for this, when we started to kiss

D

She said: hold on a minute or two

Well naturally, i knew it couldn t be me

G

I said: baby what s troubling you

She said: i m not sixteen, if you know what i mean

D

So we sat and we talked for a while

And when we finally kissed, you know she didn t resist

G

And i must say she did it with style

C G

Oh carol, you got me eating my heart away

D

You got me counting my nights and days

G

Oh i m floating on the milky way

C G

Oh carol, nobody s done it before

D

Oh baby, you ve opened the door

G

Oh carol, you can do it some more

All right!
