I spent the day forgetting
D F#m E F#m
The dream that woke me up

The garden is empty
E F#m
And I still remember why

I m so reluctant to start it again
D A
Eternal November
E F#m D E A F#m
Shines through the marrow of me

[[Verse 3]

D A E F#m
I never was a very good fighter

They started me young
D A E F#m
You always were the very best lover
D A E F#m
That I couldn t love

[Verse 4]

D A E F#m
The years they will make you a pretty good runner
D A E F#m
Yeah I ve been running around all of this time
D A E F#m
Shot in the dark, down in the shadows
D A E F#m

Waiting for when

D A E F#m D A E F#m

Yeah just waiting for when ....the coast is clear

[Bridge]

D

You were running around so you d never remember this

F#m E D

Fear lights a fire under you

D

And all you leave behind are the smoke and the ashes

F#m E D

A trail of grey and blue

[Instrumental]

F#m D A E A

F#m D A E F#m

[Verse 5]

D A E F#m

Blame me dear for any disaster

D A E F#m

Oh how the kerosene ran dry

D A E F#m

And we made our bed in that familiar graveyard

D A E F#m

Between the sternum and the spine

[Verse 6]

D A E F#m

Oh darling I think that all of the answers

D A E F#m

Went south on the backs of those grey winged birds

D A

Or slipped through our fingers

E F#m

While we were sleeping

D A E F#m

Waiting for when

D A E F#m D A E F#m

Yeah just waiting for when.... the coast is clear

[Verse 7]

D A E F#m

Along the way the light is the medicine

D A E F#m

Along the way we search for the sun

D A E F#m

To call us down the dark corridor

D                    A                    E F#m

Back into the world
