E C#m
Still wearing my makeup from yesterday,
A E
I m a corner cutting clown.

F#m
Lower the Curtain Down
C#m B
There s no more crowds around.

E C#m
See Mary Jane sneaking a cigarette,
A E
Like a shadow in the room.
F#m
Watching the cloud go by
C#m B
Wishing that she could fly.

A E
This is the circus
A E
The back stage door
A E B
Every act I ve seen before

E C#m
Somebody s spilling a drink on me
A E
Somebody claimed I saved his life
F#m
Hoping he s still alright
C#m B
Until tomorrow night.

E C#m
In through the back door in Baltimore
A E
From the cradle to the stage
F#m

Singing my pain away

C#m

B

Hoping someone relates

A E

This is the circus

A E

The beer soaked floor

A E B

Come take me eyes I ve seen before

E

But when I feel all alone

C#m

When I just don t know

A E

I hear your voice on the phone

A E B

Saying when I come home you ll be there

E

You say you just can t wait

C#m

But I ll be home too late

A E

So when I find you asleep

A E

I will turn out the lights

B

And kiss your perfumed hair.
