I ve seen her play this live a couple of times and figured it out pretty quickly. I m about 99% sure about the chords, but not too sure about the lyrics.

G C2 D Em7 Am

```

B|--3--|--3--|--3--|--3--|--3--|
G|--0--|--0--|--2--|--0--|--2--|

E|--3--|--x--|--x--|--0--|--x--|
```

Capo on second fret

G C2

Well, I miss my old house and my old room

G C2 G

The soft, faint whistle of the trains at three a.m.

C2 G

And at five in the morning too

C2 G

How have you been?

C2 G C2

Same as always, or is there something you re not telling me?

D C2

So tell me now

D C2

What s taken the corners

D C2

Of your mouth

G C2 Em7

And made you smile so

C2 G C2

And it s just a bunch of free walking, one on one

G C2 G C2

To find the most extravagant or holy place in this world

G C2 D C2

And it s time for all you free-minded, one-sided, one on one

D C2

To light up your routes now

Am C2

Don t glow in the garden for a while

G C2 G C2 C2

Well I miss my old hideouts and old (???)

The chestnut tree where I always used to be

When you wanted to find me

So tell me now

What's taken the corners

Of your mouth

And made you smile so

And it's just a bunch of free walking, one on one

To find the most extravagant or holy place in this world

And it's time for all you free-minded, one-sided, one on one

To light up your routes now

Don't glow in the garden for a while

Oooh, aaah

Oooh, aaah

Ooooooooooh...

C2 Em7

And it's just a bunch of free walking, one on one

To find the most extravagant or holy place in this world

And it's time for all you free-minded, one-sided, one on one

To light up your routes now

To light up your routes now

Don't glow in the garden for a while

Don't glow in the garden for a while

(End on a single strum of G)
