

The Right Man
Christina Aguilera

C#m

So many years have gone by

G#

Always strong, tried not to cry

F#m

Never felt like I needed any man

G#

To comfort me in life

C#m

But I m all made up today

G#

A veil upon my face

F#m

But no father stands beside me

G#

To give his bride away

G#

F#m

Well I m standing in the chapel

B

Wearing my white dress

E

I have waited for this moment

C#m

With tears of happiness

F#

Here I leave behind my past

G#m

By taking the chance

C#m

I ve finally found the right man

C#m

Thoughts racing fast through my mind

G#

As I m gazing down the aisle

F#

That my future will mend the memories

G#

Torn between father and child

C#m

My emotions overload

G#

Cause there is no hand to hold

F#

There s no shoulder here to lean on

G#

I m walking all on my own

G#

Here I go

F#

Now I m standing at four corners

To have and to hold

Now my love, you stand beside me

C#m

To walk life s winding road

F#

And I owe it all to you

G#

For taking the chance

C#m

You ve shown me there s a right man

Cause I never knew a right man

F#m

Well I m standing in the chapel

Ready to confess

That I ve waited for this moment

C#m

With tears of happiness

F#

Here I leave behind my past

G#m

By taking the chance

C#m

I ve finally found the right man

F#

Now I m standing at four corners

B

To have and to hold

E

Now my love, you stand beside me

C#m

To walk life s winding road

F#

And I owe it all to you

G#

For taking the chance

F#m

And one day my little girl

G#

Will reach out her hand

C#m

She ll know I found the right man.....
