[Verse 1]

N.C. Dm G
Sometimes I sit here in the dark,
C
Just the light of the screen.
Dm G
Maybe I don t get dressed,
C
Have a little more caffiene.
F G
Sometimes I stay up late,
C E6 Am Gadd13
Time goes by.
Dm G
I say what s on my mind,
C
And I hope for a reply.

[Verse 2]

Dm G
I never stay away long,
C
I start missing all my friends.
Dm G
I post my photographs,
C
Use my very best lens.
F G
Sometimes comments never come,
C E6 Am Gadd13
Sometimes I sit and I wait.
Dm G
Oh won t you please like me,
C
Is there someone who can relate.

[Verse 3]

Nobody ever writes me letters,
I don t know why I have a phone.
I got a couple thousand friends now,
I don t feel so alone.
Sometimes I drop them a line,
Sometimes they think of me too.
They want to know if I m okay,
In just a sentence or two.

[Verse 4]

And I know who cooked Italian,
I know who got new shoes.
I know who had to pull a tranny,
And who s away on a cruise.
I know who got that dreaded letter,
I know who just switched shampoos.
I know who s using smiley faces,
And I know who s got the blues.

[Chorus 1]

I know who likes what,
I know who s friends with who.
I know what everybody just did,
And what they re planning to do.
I know who s having a birthday.
I know who just lost their job.

I know it rained in Sarasota,
C
For a little while and then it stopped.

[Verse 5]

I found a lot of old classmates,
Dm G
C
People I once knew.
Dm G
Everybody went their own ways,
C
As people these days will do.
F G
Some of them got wealthy,
C E6 Am Gadd13
Some are living hand to mouth.
Dm G
Some of them are up north still,
C
Some have settled in the south.

[Verse 6]

All of my old flames got married,
Dm G
C
Some they got divorced.
Dm G
And of the ones who have fallen,
C
Some never got back on the horse.
F G
And the ones who did have children,
C E6 Am Gadd13
None of them look like me.
F G
I hope that everybody s happy,
C
I hope that everybody s free.

[Chorus 2]

I know who likes what,
Dm G
C
I know who s friends with who.
Dm G
I know what everybody just did,
C
And what they re planning to do.
F G

I know who just lost a father,
                                  C    E6   Am   Gadd13
And who s decided to adopt.
                                  Dm        G
I know it rained in Sarasota,
  C
For a little while and then it stopped.

[Verse 7]

                                  Dm        G
Prayers from a friend in Uganda,
  C
My friends in Israel and Iran.
                                  Dm        G
Nova Scotia, Ireland, and Denmark.
  C
Lithuania and Japan.
                                  F        G
I hope some day to meet them,
                                  C    E6   Am   Gadd13
Their plance or mine.
                                  Dm        G
But for now it makes me happy,
  C
When I see them here online.

[Verse 8]

                                  Dm        G
And I know who got a puppy,
  C
I know who s rose bushes died.
                                  Dm        G
And the ones who own ponies,
  C
Sometimes I tell them I can ride.
                                  F        G
You know, I flirted with some women,
  C    E6   Am   Gadd13
These days you never know, some of them could have been men.
                                  Dm        G
Then there was that time when Elvis,
  C
Asked if he could be my friend.

[Chorus 3]

                                  Dm    G
I know who likes what,
  C
I know who s friends with who.
                                  Dm    G

I know what everybody just did,
C
 And what they re planning to do.
F G
 I know who s fighting cancer,
C E6 Am Gadd13
 Sometimes I just start to sob.
Dm G
 I know it rains in Sarasota,
C E6 Am
 For a little while and then it stops.

Gadd13 Dm G
 I know it rains in Sarasota,
C E6 Am
 For a little while and then it stops.

Gadd13 Dm G
 I know it rains in Sarasota,
C
 For a little while and then it stops.
