These chords are easy, so I m not gonna write them down. You can use power or open chords. They both sound pretty good (I like to mix them).

Chorus:

C G
We are a common people, each of us a fallen man

Am F
Let s find that common ground and stop drawing lines in the sand

C G
We are a common people, living in a common life

Am F
There are ties that bind us all when we look beyond the lines

Am G F
Common people you and I

Am G F
Common people you and I

C
I see a blind man on the street

G
He doesn t know what I look like

Am
So he can t judge the man I am

F

Except by what he sees inside

C

I see a child on the street

G

He doesn't know the mistakes I've made

Am

I know he takes me where I am

F

He sees a friend not a crusade

Chorus.

C

I see a brother on the other side

G

of my crusade, my holy fight

Am

I think I know where I went wrong

F

when I gave up love to be proved right

C

I saw a man die on a cross

G

He forgot the mistakes I've made

Am

He died for me the way I was

F

and He wants me to love the same

Chorus.

Dm

Can't we tear the fences down?

Am

Can't we rip the labels off?

F

Can we share the common ground

C G
instead of judging what is not?

Dm
Can t we love instead of hate?

Am
Can t we trust instead of fear?

F
Can we stop fighting for a moment

C G
and feel our common fear?

Am G
Is it us against them, wrong against right,

F
black against white, my kind your kind?

Am G
There comes a time to put the argument down

F
and have a party on the common ground!

Chorus.
