If you re just passing thru
C#
There s is not much to do in our little town
G#m C#
If you re moving too fast then you probably won t last

In our little town
F# A#m Fm
The man on the street has a light in his eyes
G#
And a shine on his shoes
D#m F#
There s not much of a dark side here
D#m G#
I just want to make that clear
C# F# C#
Hey our little town is a real fine place
A#m C#
Hey our little town has a style and and a grace
F# A#m
In our little town we re not gathering dust
G# D#m
Hey our little town is a face you can trust

Take a good look at us

C# F# C# F#

In our little town our little town

G#m

So you ve made some mistakes

C#

You can put on the brakes in our little town

G#m

Youve been living in vain

C#

Why not get off the train in our little town

F#

A#m

Fm

The ways of the world are like dust on the windshield

G#

Just wipe them away

D#m

F#

D#m

G#

And see has it feels to be right where you want to be

C#

F#

C#

Hey our little town is a real fine place

A#m

Hey our little town is a face you can trust

Take a good look at us

C# F# C# F#

In our little town our little town

F#

In our little town we got nothing to hide you see

A

And if I were you

B

G#

There d be no place I d rather be

C#

F#

C#

Hey our little town is a place in the sun

A#m

C#

In our little town we don t hurt any one

F#

A#m

In our little town we will tell you no lies

G#

D#m

Hey our little town looks you right in the eye

D#m

C#

F#

We bever say die in our lttle town

C# F#

Our little town
