Intro

A E A G E

E
Growing up as a young boy

Sometimes can be rough

At six years old I was thinkin

Seven would be just enough

A
But I was wrong
E
Ooo I was wrong yea

E
Ten years old and Im growin

Thinkin I got it sussed

Mama said youll be a fine young man

I thought I already was

A
But I was wrong
E
Ooo I was wrong

G A
Cause when you get where you re going

E
The roads still long

E
Eighteen years Im a rebel

Thinkin Im pretty tough

Daddy said you got a lot to learn

I thought that Id learned enough

A

But I was wrong

E

Ooo I was wrong yea

E

Twenty-five was a good time

Comin into my own

Climbed the mountain

And I reached for the sky

I thought that I had it all

A

But I was wrong

E

Ooo I was wrong

G

Cause when you get where youre going

E

The roads still long

When you get where youre going

E

The roads still long

D

They all try to tell you

But who are they to say

E

Cause the best things that you learn

You find out on your way

No time for feelin sorry

Just time for being strong

G
