

I Felt Free
Circa Survive

Capo on 4th fret.

You can hammer at the end of Em s and E s.. just make it sound cool by going between Em s and E s. :)

Listen to the acoustic version to help you go through it; helped me a lot.

E
Nothing new to say

Am Em/E
Nothing to report cause the future happened yesterday

E
If I could tell the truth

E
I could make you stay

Am Em/E
but forever seems so far away

C E
I fell apart in your arms

Am
for the last time

C E
And I felt free to do what I want

Am
because of the things you told me,

Am Em/E
because of the things you told me, you told me

E
I felt free

E
You could be the end of me

E
Too many shades of gray

Am Em/E
It s just another pointless game that we play

E
I couldn t tell the truth

E
I ll never make you stay

Am Em/E
because tomorrow always happens yesterday

C E
I fell apart in your arms

Am
for the last time

C E
And I felt free to do what I want

Am
because of the things you told me

Am Em/E
because of the things you told me, you told me
E
I felt free
C Em
I will learn to live again for now I m breaking
C Em
all the things I couldn t mend without escaping
C
I will learn to love again
Em
I will learn to love
C Em
I will learn
C E
I fell apart in your arms
Am
for the last time
C E
And I felt free to do what I want
Am
because of the things you told me
C Em
I felt free
C Em
I felt free
Am
because of the things you told me, you told me

Am E
because of the things you told me, you told me
