(Dallas Green with Tegan and Sara)

Now the deep water horizon

Desends down to deaths door

And at the bird s foot,

They lost all hope,

Cause oil is driftin,

For miles and miles,
Poisoning the Gulf of Mexico,

But of the eleven,
Men at the bottom,
Who sank to an underwater grave?

And while they were sinking,
And their lungs filled with oil,
They must have been screaming,
Screaming to be saved,

Oooh (repeats until end of song)

But of the eleven ,
Men at the bottom,
Who sank to an underwater grave?

While they were sinking,
Their lungs filling with oil,
They must have been screaming,
Screaming to be saved.
