I m Not Sure I m Ready To Leave

Am C G D

But I Don t Think It s Safe If I Stay

And The Burden Of Loving You Is Heavy For Me

Yeah (yeah)

But I Just Can t Seem To Turn And Walk Away

Cause everytime that I feel at home is when I m lookin in your eyes (your eyes)
And the only truth that I ve ever known is when you re tellin me your lies (your lies)

Now I can t tell a lie, it s all a blur, not really sure, if you re a blessing
or curse

And the only truth that I ve ever known is when you re tellin me your lies (your lies), and I...

Loves been a disaster for me

What started out so beautiful has turned to pain

What happened to my happily ever after

See I know that it s been over for a while but I can t break away (break away)

Cause everytime that I feel at home is when I m lookin in your eyes (your eyes)
And the only truth that I ve ever known is when you re tellin me your lies (your lies)

Now I can t tell a lie, it s all a blur, not really sure, if you re a blessing
or curse

And the only truth that I ve ever known is when you re tellin me your lies (your lies), and I...

Got me holding on to ya...

Got me confused I don t know what s real or fake

Baby now the only thing I m used ta

Everyday, everynight, all the time I hear your lies

Cause everytime that I feel at home is when I m lookin in your eyes (your eyes)
And the only truth that I ve ever known is when you re tellin me your lies (your lies)

Now I can't tell a lie, it's all a blur, not really sure, if you're a blessing
or curse

And the only truth that I've ever known is when you're tellin' me your lies (your lies)
