Every Light In The House Is Blown

F
I told you I d leave some flares on
C
In case you ever wanted to find my home
A
You frowned and said well the dang law should arrest ya
F
Well this ole house keeps fallen apart
C
So I went down to the local Wal-Mart
A
And bought the Coleman lantern to impress ya

F C

F C

Chorus:

F
Cause every light in the house is blown
C
I keep on a clappin but they don t clap on
A
House looks like were the Amish live
F
There s really no point to pay the power bill
F
Every light in the house is blown
C
The numbers won t even light up on my telephone
F
Cause every light in the house is blown

C

F
It got awful dang depressin
C
The lights all blew out one by one
And I just can t afford right now to replace them
Until then I ll sit here in the dark
Cause I can t get this ole generator to start
I got four batteries but I don t won t to waste em

Chorus:
