

The Junky Jews
Clem Snide

[Verse 1]

D                C                G
It was so very long ago
D                C                G
In California desert snow
D                C                                G
On film was caught a burning bush
D                C                                G
Up many hills a stone was pushed

[Chorus]

Dm                F
The junky Jews
C                                G
So much to lose
Dm                F
The junky Jews
C Cm                G
Sing the blues

[Verse 2]

D                C                                G
Corey Feldman took the stand
D                C                                G
A sequel to the ten commands
D                C                                G
The Red Sea parted in his veins
D                C                                G
Beholding he who has no name

[Chorus]

Dm                F
The junky Jews
C                                G
So much to lose
Dm                F
The junky Jews
C Cm                G
Sing the blues

[Verse 3]

D                C                                G
The world was shining like a jewel
D                C                                G
But on the surface very cruel
D                C                                G
So Jesus picked up his guitar

D                    C                                    G
And sang about a shooting star

D                    C                                    G
And sang about a shooting star
