```
G                   Em7
Throw me in the water
        Cadd9                 G
Cause you know that I could never swim
    G                   Em7       Cadd9     G
I ll think of you, as I go down
       G               Em7
And you put yourself in order
        Cadd9              G              G
Cause you know that I could never count as high as you
   Em7             Cadd9        G
My nose would bleed

      D               Cadd9
Your heart is like a stone
        D                     Asus
And your flesh has turned to bone
D               G               Gmaj9              Fm
Don t feel bad if hell is not the place you hoped to be

G  Em7  Cadd9  G x4

        G                   Em7
And you put aside your dagger
        Cadd9                G
Cause you know that you might need it soon
   G               Em7           Cadd9     G
To cut me open and feel around inside
       G                       Em7
```

We ll make like on your flower
```
      Cadd9                   G                    G
```
So the blood that spills is all the same to me
```
    Em7        Cadd9      G
```
And everyone you know

```
      D                 Cadd9
```
Your heart is like a stone
```
         D                     Asus
```
And your flesh has turned to bone
```
D                 G                  Gmaj9              Fm
```
Don t feel bad if hell is not the place you hoped to be

```
     G                 Em7
```
You say it doesn t matter
```
         Cadd9                  G                   G
```
Cause you know from all those books you never read
```
         Em7            Cadd9      G
```
That you knew how they would end
