Gulf Of Mexico
by: Clint Black

INTRO: G D A D

D
The Texas coastline hold her
 A
close just like a lady

And in their time they ve
 D
weathered a storm or two.

The river feed her waters like I
feed your memory.

The deeper I go the more I m
 D turning blue.
 G
The sandy beaches drift in time
 D A
and the changing tide I know
 D
won t bring me back to yesterday
 A
and the Gulf of Mexico.
 D
The sails out on the water will come take you away.

When your ship comes in I know

its time to go

and the waves along the seawall

tell me nothings here to stay and no man is an island but I m

D

still all alone.

G

I m weighing anchors from the past

A

as the south winds start to blow

sailing out of yesterday

A

and the Gulf of Mexico.

D

I ll be sailing out of yesterday

A

D

and the Gulf of Mexic.
