If we had an hourglass to watch each one go by Or a bell to mark each one to pass, we d see just how they fly Would we escalate the value to be worth its weight in gold Or would we never know the fortunes that we had till we grow old And do we just keep killin time until there s no time to kill

No time to kill, even I ve said it, probably always will But I can look ahead and see that time ain t standin still No time to kill but time to change the kind of hurry I ve been in Quit this work and worry lookin back at where I ve been If you don t look ahead nobody will, there s no time to kill
