CAPO 3

Em Am F Am Em

Am

he met her at a night club,

Em

she couldn't keep the beat

Am

she wore her grandma's prom dress

Em

wrapping slippers on her feet

Am

G

he took a shot of something strong to make him feel less weak

and so the story goes...

F

there's something to be said about

Am G

trading stories of when you're eight years old

Am

he had his first stitches when he bit an ice cream bowl

Am

Em

she had her first kiss in a swimming hole

so the story goes...

G Em

and the days grew long

Am

and the wine was overflowing

Em

and she knew she was in love

Em

because nobody ever hugged her like that,

Em

hugged her like that

Em

hugged her like that

hugged her like that

Am

they moved into a school bus

just cause it seemed like fun

Am

she said i like the way you touch me

G

it makes me feel like i have no skeleton

Em

and so the story goes...

Am

and I ve seen photographs and videotapes

Em

of that decent home, that loving place

G Am Em

and it s about time two minds combine

G Am Em

in such a fine, fine way

G Am Em

and may your lives be long

and may your wishes all be simple

and may your hearts stay strong

she rides him like the state fair

Am

they make love like two solar flares

Em

and carry like they really care that they re going to make it

Am

He wants to die in the place where she first said i love you

Am

spread his ashes with the breath of the last kiss that she blew

Dm

they decorate when featherless

they celebrate through hungriness
