

Dear Rodeo
Cody Johnson

[Verse 1]

G

Dear Rodeo

C

I d be lying if I try to tell you I don t think about you

D

After all the miles and the wild nights that we ve been through

D

Lord knows we ve had a few

[Verse 2]

G

Dear Rodeo

C

I d like to say that I took the reigns and rode away

No regrets, no left-unsaid, just turn the page

D

Oh, but you know better, babe

[Chorus]

C

Between them almost-had- ems and broken bones

Am

The dream of a buckle I ll never put on

D

I m jaded, I hate it

C

But somehow the highs outweigh the lows

Am

D

And I d do it all again even though we both know

C

I d still have to let you go

[Verse 3]

G

So dear Rodeo

C

I tried like hell to tell myself it was all your fault

D

I held on tight with all my might, I just couldn t hang on

D

And that s hard to hang your hat on

[Chorus]

C

Between them almost-had-ems and broken bones

Am

The dream of a buckle I'll never put on

D

I'm jaded, I hate it

C

But somehow the highs outweigh the lows

Am

D

And I'd do it all again even though we both know

C

Am

G

Am

G C

D

I'd still have to let you gooooooooooooooooooooo

[Verse 4]

G

Dear Rodeo

C

I'd like to think you miss me too, but I know you don't

D

Oh, but that don't change the past and that don't change the truth

D

I'm still in love with you

G

Dear Rodeo
