

Diamond In My Pocket
Cody Johnson

No Capo

Easy song. Hammer on and off with different fingers during the first half of the verses to give it some flair since it s just a G chord.

Tabbed by J. LaHood.

G
Saturday night and the moon is out
G
Just shinin over top of the pines
G
I m headin on down to my baby s house
G
Gonna take her on a midnight ride
Em C G
Now I m on these backroads winding up at a Kickapoo Creek
Em C D
Dancin and singin to some good ol boys like me

C D G
Baby, there s a shooting star,
C D G
That was for me and you.
C G C D
So, hold me tight, make that wish, and pray that it comes true.
G D G
I ain t sure of much,
Em D C
But this I know -
Em D G
I got a diamond in my pocket and my baby s got a heart of gold.

G
I brought along a little courage and Coleman cooler, Just to help me out
G
My hands are shaking like Cambridge rattler,
G
Nothing s gonna save me now
Em C G
Mind as well jump in head first, lay it all on the line
Em C D
What am I worrying about? Never gonna be a more perfect time

C D G
Baby, there s a shooting star,

C D G

That was for me and you.
