

Nobody To Blame

Cody Johnson

Nobody to Blame - Cody Johnson

Capo 2 - Standard Tuning

http://www.thecodyjohnsonband.com/fr_home.cfm

Intro: G, Em, C, G

Verse:

G (F# (as a note backing down))

If I hadnâ€™t have stayed gone

Em

Youâ€™d have never been alone

C

G

But then I wouldnt be on this road that Iâ€™m on

G

If Iâ€™d chose not to sing, hell

Em

I could have done a lot of things

C

G

But then this feeling inside wouldnt be the same

Chorus:

G D

And I could of been everything

Em

D

C

That they said I should have been

G

I should have loved you

G

D

(F# as a note then into the G)

Like our love would never end

G F

I could have called, but I didnt

C A

So now this is the life im living

G D

C

G

Six strings, one dream and nobody to blame but me

(Same chords as first verse)

The noise from all the crowds

Pick me up when Iâ€™m down

Thats something baby even when your not around

All the whiskey and late nights

Lets you know that I,

Was just something that you had to lay down

(same chords as chorus)

And I could of been everything
That they said I should have been
I should have loved you
Like our like would never end
I could have called, but I didnt
So now this is the life im living
Six strings, one dream and nobody to blame but me

Am

Oh here tonight I see

B7

with the spot light on me

Em (F# as note) A

Iâ€™ve got everything that I need

G D

C

G

Six strings, one dream, and nobody to blame but me

G D

C

G

Six strings, one dream, and nobody to blame but me