This is a great song, simple in structure and chords but complex in rhythm.

It uses two chords, a standard C and a strange F that looks like this:

E 0
B 1
G 2
D 3
A 0
E x

Intro C,F x 4

C
Everything changing will unchange again
F
Sun sheds the light as the life sheds the skin
C

F
The secrets you sleep with will not break the spell

C
Come on lets go home
F
Buried in your room

But chooses to spare me
