[Verse]

I m sorry ma'am, don t hang up, no I ain t sellin nothin .
I don t know what I was thinkin when I called, I guess I wasn t.
Yeah I was just down on my luck, having some trouble with this old truck
And the guy that used to pick up, he could fix anything

[Chorus]

Sometimes I forget these ten digits ain t my lifeline anymore,
Every now and then I dial em up when life gets tough or when the Braves score.
Sorry bout the one ring hang ups, early morning and late night wake ups
It was just me, in case you wondered, you ve got dad s old number

[Verse]

I learned it by heart when I was six, he never did change it
I ve called it in trouble with good and bad news and break ups, yeah you name it
Sure I ve got some friends I can call, and they re always there if I need to talk
But good as they are it ain t their fault, sometimes I just need him

[Chorus]

Sometimes I forget these ten digits ain t my lifeline anymore,
Every now and then I dial em up when life gets tough or when the Braves score.
