

I Just Dont Think Ill Ever Get Over You
Colin Hay

I don t think all the chords are right but you can play along with the track without it sounding bad. Also,there s an solo part which I haven t tabbed.

C F G C
I drink good coffee every morning
F G C
Comes from a place that s far away
F G Am
And when I m done I feel like talking
F G C
Without you here there is less to say
F G C
I don t want you thinking I m unhappy
F G C
What is closer to the truth
F G Am G
That if I lived till I was 102
F G C
I just don t think I ll ever get over you
F G C
I m no longer moved to drink strong whisky
F G C
Cause I shook the hand of time and I knew
F G Am G
That if I lived till I could no longer climb my stairs
F G C
I just don t think I ll ever get over you

(solo part)

F G C
Your face it dances and it haunts me
F G C
Your laughter s still ringing in my ears
F G Am
I still find pieces of your presence here
F G C
Even after all these years
F G C
But I don t want you thinking I don t get asked to dinner
F G C
Cause I m here to say that I sometimes do
F G Am G
Even though I may soon feel the touch of love
F G C
I just don t think I ll ever get over you
F G Am G

If I lived till I was 102

F G C
I just don't think I'll ever get over you
