

Finally Wrote A Song For You
Colin James

If you have trouble with bar chords or just want an easier way to play it, transpose the chords 2 half steps down and it can be played with all open chords with a capo on the second fret.

The lyrics in brackets are the back up singers at the end of each chorus.

Standard Tuning

Intro:

A Bm7 D A x2

A

A woman with a warm heart

Bm7

Her brown eyes would make my heart stop

D A

I finally wrote a song for you.

A

My lover and my best friend

Bm7

Together til the road ends

D A

I finally wrote a song for you.

F#m

Bm

Just like the old folks say,

D

Well they say that real love

A

Don t come around everyday.

F#m

Bm

And from the moment you came my way

D

I knew I was meant for you,

E

And you were meant for me too.

A

I finally wrote a song for you

Bm7

It s a long time overdue

D

After everything we ve been through

A

(I finally wrote a song for you) I finally wrote it

A

I can't thank you enough

Bm7

It's better late than never my love

D

I finally wrote a song for you.

A

(I finally wrote a song for you)

A Bm7 D A

A

All the love and the pain

Bm7

I'd do it all over again

D

A

I finally wrote a song for you.

A

You're my true love my shining light

Bm7

My only star in the sacred night

D

A

I finally wrote a song for you.

F#m

Bm

And we'll show everybody how

D

Show 'em that real love

E

Never leaves any doubt

F#m

Bm

From this moment 'til the lights go out

D

Some things were meant to be

E

Some things like you and me

A

I finally wrote a song for you

Bm7

It's a long time overdue

D

After everything we've been through

A

(I finally wrote a song for you) I finally wrote it

A

I can't thank you enough

Bm7

It s better late than never my love

D

I finally wrote a song for you.

A

(I finally wrote a song for you)

A

I finally wrote a song for you

Bm7

It s a long time overdue

D

After everything we ve been through

A

(I finally wrote a song for you) I finally wrote it

A

I can t thank you enough

Bm7

It s better late than never my love

D

I finally wrote a song for you.

A

(I finally wrote a song for you)

A Bm7 D A (fade out)