

Lost Again
Colin James

D A
She walked in all dressed in roses, Italian shades and a book of poets

Em G
The words spilled out and filled the room Like candy.

D A
We were wild with nothing to lose We raved on from black to blue

Em G
But the sun came up and you had gone away You had gone away

Chorus

D A Em
Hey, what do ya say, Let s get lost again

G
Like we did back then,

D A Em
Hey, what do you say, Do you remember when

G D
Let s get lost again, Lost again.

D A
Up and down on Williams street I walked the floor while the neighbors sleep

Em G
And the skyline stays the same But something inside has changed

D A
Easy riders lost insiders Looking for a star to guide us

Em G
It s the price you pay It never shines that way

G
Never shines that way

Solo

A
When there s nothing left to lose

Em

And you just keep dreaming on

Em

And you just keep dreaming on.

Chorus
