Comments:

If you have the album From the Ground Up, you can hear this song four minutes and fourteen seconds into Satellite. At first, I thought this was a cover, but it turns out that Ed Roland wrote this as country song. Now, I don t really like country, but since it s Collective Soul... I like it. I was surprised that nobody has tabbed this out yet, so here s how I think the song is played.

If there s any corrections, let me know.
