

Dm F
but she would walk a million more to do what she believes

C G F
she ll have a perfect day

C G Am
troubles blooming, innocence now fades

F
still she s dry through all the rain

C G Am
there s no purpose she has yet to crave

F
she s like the big dog on parade

Dm
well i would walk a million miles

G
to give her all that she nedds

Dm F
she would walk a million more to do well as she pleased

C G F
she had a perfect day

-E|-----|
-B|-----|
-G|-----|
-D|-----10----10--|
-A|---13----12-----|
-E|-----|

A# F
i can t figure this one out

C i ve no words here to explain

-E|-----|
-B|-----13-18---17-----|
-G|---9h10p9h10p9---12-----17---15---15h17---14--|
-D|-----10----10-----|
-A|-----|
-E|-----|

A# F
she ll just sugar kiss me off

C
she ll just have another perfect day

After this Sir Elton John played his piano

Dm

well i would walk a million miles

G

to give her all that she nedds

Dm

F

she would walk a million more to do well as she pleased

C

G

F

she had a perfect day

Jakarta, december 31th 2000 , 11:40 AM