

Heart Full Of Rain
Collin Raye

[INTRO]

A E7 A

A

I believe I've attempted every move that I know

E7

I was sure that by now you'd have let yourself go

A

I've been loving my heart out, and without any shame

E7

Gotten down on my knees just to kindle this flame

A

But tonight I am down to the wire

E7

I've been striking these matches in vain

Got a whole lot of smoke but no fire

A

Cause you got a heart full of rain

A

Now somewhere in your history there's a reason or two

E7

Why you won't let a body get close to you

A

Why the truth that I whisper always sounds like a lie

E7

Why you're drowning inside from the tears you don't cry

A

But your blue eyes have never been dryer

E7

And you smile like you're feeling no pain

Got a whole lot of smoke but no fire

A

Cause you got a heart full of rain

D

A

I had hoped I could open the heart that you hide

E7

Cause it sure needs a little sunshine inside

A

But tonight I am down to the wire

E7

I ve been striking these matches in vain

Got a whole lot of smoke but no fire

A

Cause you got a heart full of rain

E7
