

You Will Always Be Mine
Collin Raye

[Intro]

D            A D            D

[Verse 1]

I love the way you move. . . like moon light on the sea
The way your body calls me. . . like a secret melody
The way you start a fire. . . when you look into my eyes
The way you always love me. . . until I m satisfied

[CHORUS]

There are moments when I love you
Beyond the limits of my human heart
I want to hold you and take care of you
The way the angels watch over the stars
Past the pull of earth, across the deep blue sky
Through the universe, beyond the reach of time
You will always be mine

[Verse 2]

I don t know how you know. . . exactly what I need
I don t how you found. . . the man I wanna be
I don t how your sweet tears. . . make me see clear again
I don t how you know, I don t know how you go everywhere I ve been

[CHORUS]

G                  A
There are moments when I love you
      D                                  D
Beyond the limits of my human heart
          G                                  A
I want to hold you and take care of you
          Bm                  A          G      G
The way the angels watch over the stars
                  A                                  G
Past the pull of earth across the deep blue sky
                  A                                  G      A
Through the universe, beyond the reach of time
                                  D
You will always be mine
