

Tomorrow
Communards

C Bb Gm G# Cm Bb C# G G

Like the knife of a thief that s held close to the throat
I m threatened by you and the cruel way you gloat
You once turned me on, now all it seems so remote
You broke me in pieces, you cherished each blow;
The harder you hit me, the stronger I grow
I ll leave you tomorrow, take my pride and I ll go

You may break the skin but you can t kill the soul
I ve had all I can take

You may break the skin but you can t kill the soul
I ve had all I can take

I m leaving tomorrow

I m leaving tomorrow

I m leaving, I ve had all I can take

Don t tell me you love me, your tears are too late

Your trap was deception, and I took the bait

The animal in you, you can t keep at bay

I m not your possession to treat as you wish

Your silence will slowly destroy you each day

I m leaving tomorrow, my love for life is great

You may break the skin but you can t kill the soul
I ve had all I can take
