

Happy Birthday
Concrete Blonde

From: ericb@arkarool.ecr.mu.oz.au (Enrico_Giuseppe BETTIO)

Hi there. I worked this out myself so its not 100% guaranteed but I think its pretty right, as for the lyrics.. they are off the top of my head.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY - by Concrete Blonde
----- off the album Free

F Am
Outside in the hall there s a cat-fight
Bb C
Its just after midnight, I guess I ll be alright

Laying out on the floor, drunk and poor.
How much longer, how much more.

Oh rock me to sleep, strong and deep.
Screaming cats they give me the creeps

But aside from all that I feel no pain,
Staring up at the ceiling stains.

Bb F
Neon in the window,

Bb F
Sirens far away,

Bb F
News on the radio

Gm Bb F
Happy birthday, happy birthday, happy birthday

Well the cat next door, this whole floor,
I swear they re out to drive me crazy.

But not right now, I m high as a cloud,
I m soft and grey and lazy.

Smoking out the window,
Feeling far away,
News on the radio

(solo I think about now)

Throw me out the window

Somewhere far away

News on the radio

there you go, if anything is wrong with it I will repost

.. I use 6th string roots for some of the verses to get that muting.

bye
