

He Thinks I Still Care
Connie Francis

He Thinks I Still Care: Connie Francis.
#18 Adult Contemp. & #57 Hot 100 in 1962.

(Capo 1st fret.)

F# C#7 B F#

INTRO: He thinks I still care...

#1.

F# B F#

Just because I ask a friend about him.

F# C#7 F#

Just because I spoke his name somewhere.

F# F#7 B

Just because I rang his number, by mistake today,

F# C#7 F#

he thinks I still care.

#2.

F# B F#

Just because I haunt the same old places,

F# C#7 F#

where the memory of him lingers everywhere.

F# F#7 B

Just because I m not the happy girl I used to be,

F# C#7 F#

he thinks I still care.

CHORUS:

F# B F#

But if he s happy thinkin I still need him,

F# C#

then let that silly notion bring him cheer.

B F#

How could he ever be, so foolish,

F# G#7 C#7

oh, where would he get such an idea?

#3.

F# B F#

Just because I ask a friend about him.

F# C#7 F#

Just because I spoke his name somewhere.

F# F#7 B

Just because I saw him, then went all to pieces,

F# C#7 F#

he thinks I still care.

OUTRO:

F# C#7 B F#

He thinks I, still care...

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.
