Bloodline

Tab by Sam Kurcab

Capo 1st fret

G# Eb Fm Eb
Rolling around a lifetime on a name that spells my past
G# Eb Bbm Eb
Carried through the mile markers up towards some last laugh
G# Eb Fm Eb
And if fools could only prosper, I m afraid what they might say
G# Eb Bbm Eb
From a podium built on generations bleeding what they make

Fm (Bbm)
Because here it comes
Eb
Watch them all jump right in
Bbm C# Eb
Tell me, how could you refuse to float with the rest of them?
Fm Bbm C#
You were born into it, there s no shame if you drift
G#
Down the bloodline

Feeling temperamental underneath a broker sun
A certificate of excellence, but no proof on your pay stub
And if money s not a problem, I suggest you best believe
There s ten dollars on the table, and a million up his sleeve

And here they come, watch them all pass us by
Tell me how could you refuse to look one in the eye?
Two sheets to the wind all over again
Down the bloodline
Down the bloodline

Fm Bbm
Yes, it feels scary to be ordinary
C# Eb
In a world that don t know your name
Fm Bbm
It would not be weird if I just disappeared
C# Eb
Blowing my back out, trying to hold my weight

Looking for a doctor with a cure for a broke heart
Seems I spent it all on a miracle just to watch it fall apart
Now there s no room for ill-complaining, I know it s all just what it is Cherry-pick my best believers and send them off with a kiss

Because there they go
Watch them all wave goodbye
Tell me how could you refuse to think it s a wonderful life?
Two sheets to the wind all over again
Down the bloodline
Down the bloodline
Down the bloodline
