

Danny Callahan
Conor Oberst and the Mystic Valley Band

G#m G G#m G F#

B

Green world, love the chloroform

C#m

Front porch in the thunderstorm

E C#m B

Controlled chaos, confused energy

B

So stop reading the weather charts

C#m

Stop counting the playing cards

E C#m B

There s no system, there s no guarantee

E F# B

That the love you feel and carry inside can be passed

But you try, and all you do is just talk to the past

(B) C#m F#

Ask how are you getting on alone

B

Some wander the wilderness

C#m

Some drink cosmopolitans

E C#m B

Some cold science, some glean astroplanes

B

I can t tell where the canvas stops

C#m

Homesick as an astronaut

E C#m B

Just keep drifting, but still can t explain

E F# B

How the love we feel we carry inside can be passed

See a brother in the gutter and reach out your hand

(B) C#m F#

Ask how are you getting on alone

B

What gauge measures miracles

C#m

Whose heartbeat s electrical

E C#m B

We feign sickness with our modern joy

B

But even Western medicine

C#m

It couldn't save Danny Callahan

E C#m B

Bad bone marrow, the poor little boy

E F# B

But the love he feels he carries inside can be passed

He lay still, his mother kissed him goodbye, said come back

(B) C#m F#

Where are you going to alone

Where are you going all alone

Just fill in the gaps where I did not bother to note the chords and ENJOY!
