

I Gotta Reason Part 2

Conor Oberst and the Mystic Valley Band

Conor Oberst & the Mystic Valley Band " I Gotta Reason, Pt II.

From the album Outer South due out 5th of May 2009.

Ok, I found these chords on the Compare&Contrast messageboard [Thanks to whoever worked out; added the verse & Chorus lyrics; also, there s a fill from the live version you can at the end on every Am, just pick the chord descending, pulling off the string-to open-time; listen for it on the live version; that s pretty much it. B5 seems pretty with Bm; might be something wrong with D5 as well; see what you think.

intro- G, Am [hammer on D to E then pull off the C to B]

G Am
you know a lot can happen after everybody falls asleep

G Am
ask the forest fire, ask the cop walking on the beat

C G
and do right by them, work a little in your dreams

Cm D
don t let time rob you, hold onto your memories

G Am
in the glass houses, in the pages of the rolling stone

G Am
I get a sick feeling, like Iâ€™m rocking in a little boat

C G
hear the big church bell, it s ringing like a mobile phone

Cm D
such a long Sunday drive, and Iâ€™m taking it all alone

(Pre &) CHORUS

B5 C5 D5
I wanna belong to a reason

B5 C5 G
and cut a new key to the kingdom

D C
and if anybody asks me, say I wanna belong

D C
if anybody asks me, say that it won t take long

D C
if anybody asks me, say Iâ€™m gonna get this done

D C
if anybody asks me, say I got a reason

G Am
In a vast hard-drive, in the satellites that kick and spin

G Am
They keep the old footage, so everything can live again

C G
Pretty pink roses, the ostrich and the elephant

Cm D
Itâ€™s the last Noahâ€™s ark, so everythingâ€™s gotta fit.

G Am
In the creased pages, of a letter Iâ€™ve been trying to send

G Am
To a young widow, how is desperate for some kind of friend

C G
Youâ€™ll find a long list of, eligible handsome men

Cm D
Who want to lay with her, up on the {table of the elements}

REPEAT CHORUS!
