Recorded By: Conway Twitty

Album: Crazy In Love
Transcribed By: Kenneth Wilber (jsenter@wpe.com)

Eb Bb/D
Lying all alone in this midnight blue
Eb
with nothing but these memories of you
Bb/D G#maj7 Fm7
Staring at these walls that are closing in G#maj7 Fm7
wondering if you re ever coming back again

Eb
Now I m just a prisoner in this big old bed
Bb/D Eb Bb/D
Living with the things that I should ve said
G#maj7 Fm
Why is it always after someone s gone
Bb Eb
that you begin to see where you went wrong

Chorus:

G# Eb
I couldn t see you leaving, but I can see you re gone
Bb Eb
That note you left on my pillow said I was on my own
G# Eb
I never heard you crying, cause I was seldom home
Bb G# Eb Bb/D, Eb, Bb/Eb
I couldn t see you leaving, but I can see you re gone

I just keep wondering where you are tonight

I did a good job of fooling myself
Thinking that you re love would stay on the shelf
But how could anybody be so blind
To have to wake up alone and find

Repeat Chorus:

I couldn't see you leaving, but I can see you're gone
