Am C

With your eyes closed

F G

Watching a strange show

F G

Play out in your head

F G

But you were smiling somehow

Am C

And your day froze

F G

And everyone in it

F G

Sat still as a rose

F G

But you were moving somehow.

F G

Back to when we started

Am C

Losing who we were

F G

maybe we should only

Am

tip a bottle back

G F
to keep us filled up.

G
Back to when we started

Am C
losing who we were

F G
everybody knows that

Am
you d break your neck

G F
to keep your chin up.

Am G
Open your eyes.

Am C
and the drops come

F G F
in a snailrace down to your neck

G
and look up

F G
but you were smiling somehow.

Back to the chorus for the rest of the song, end on the F chord.
