Postcard From Rome

G C G C
She s in a window seat sitting alone
G C G D
Her suitcase is spilling out untaken photos
G C G C
Of European architecture, an apartment on the coast
G C G D
She s on an airplane heading to Rome
G C G D
She s on an airplane sitting alone
C G C
So baby be safe, baby be smart
G C G D
The world s not so pretty a place after dark
G C
Honey I d hold you so tight in my arms
G C G D
But you re oceans away, and I m home working hard
C G C
So baby be safe, baby be smart
G C G C
Take pictures of people and pictures of trees
G C G D
Try every corner coffee shop on every busy street
G C G C
Be the modern Napoleon take all of Italy
G C G D
But every so often think a little of me
G C G D
I m probably wide awake worried bout you out on the street
C G C
So baby go free, and baby have fun
G C D
The world is a beautiful place when you re young
C G C
I ll be here waiting when your wandering s done
G C G D
If you promise me that we ll still be in love
C G C
Baby go free, baby have fun
G C G D
She s in a window seat sitting alone
C G C
Her heart is heavy; her suitcase is full

G C G D
Of different culture and brand new friends
