No one s been ridin with me for a long while
So I m bein careful tryin to watch my speed
But it s gettin hard to keep my eyes on the highway
Knowin you re over in the passenger seat

My heart s out on a limb, and girl you d be somethin to lose

Waited two hours for a haircut down at Jerry s
He cleaned me up and then I headed home
I put on a new shirt and double-dosed in Cool Water
Stared in the bathroom mirror way too long
Wonderin if I turn you on

And I know tonight might seem like dinner and a movie
But to me, it means much, much more
Cause I m bettin my whole heart that you re gonna love me
And I ve never took that kinda chance before

My heart, be still, I m havin trouble breathin
Wonderin if you feel the same way that I m feelin
Cold sweat, so strange, I can t play it cool
My heart s out on a limb, and girl you d be somethin to lose
You d be somethin to lose

You, me, we should get together now
Cause love may never give another chance	Same Chords
Please don t be afraid to let me in	As Chorus
Cause we may never get this moment back again__

My heart, be still, I m havin trouble breathin
Wonderin if you feel the same way that I m feelin
Cold sweat, so strange, I can t play it cool
My heart s out on a limb, and girl you d be somethin to lose
