Corrinne May

Beautiful Life (from the album Crooked Lines; I bought her CD ^^)

Capo 1st fret

Verse 1:

F                  G
It s in living every moment
          Am                  C
Like it could be our last
          F                  G
For our hearts are restless
          Am                  C
Till they rest in love s caress

And the moments we remember
They interweave our hearts
Like a tapestry surrounding us
That we forget to touch

Bridge:

F                  G
It s why we wake up every morning
          Am                  C
It s why we seek each other s smile
          F                  G
It s why we know that it s all worth it
          Am                  C (hold)
It s why we hold on, we make the sacrifice

Chorus 1:

F                  G

          Am                  C
As you hold her in your arms
          F                  G          Am      C#
And your heart starts to beat once again
          F                  G
And your world is reborn
          Am                  C
In the freshness of her song
F (hold)          G (hold)
Smile, it s a beautiful life

F G Am C (x2)

Verse 2 (repeat the chord pattern):

It s in the hope of the poor man
As he struggles to make ends meet
It s in the laughter of his children
As they play in the street

Don t need a million dollars
To raise a happy child
You just need a pair of loving arms
And thhe time to make her smile

And your soul starts to breathe once again
          F                  G
And the weight of the world

Falls away with one word
F (hold)                  G (hold)
Smile, it s a beautiful life

And your world starts to spin once again
          F                  G
And two hearts become one

As a dream is begun
