The thunder rolls its angry arms

G

Across my shoulders in the dark

D

Baby I m losing ground

But I can see a million miles through that dark

When the lights are on you

I ll make it back to your door

G

So let me back in the boat

And then back in your arms

C

Let me cry to the wind

G

I know you need me babe

Regardless of what you ll say

Oh I know, I know you see it, I know you ll see it my, my way

And every hour that passes now

All our dreams like embers falling

Make hollow footsteps in the hall

Stay with me now

Stay while I sleep

Oh the wind and the waters calling me

Cause I ll make it back to your shore

(I know I will)

So let me back in the boat

And let me back in your arms

Let me cry to the wind

I know you need me babe

Regardless of what you ll say

Oh I, I know you see it, and I know I see it my way, my way

And let me back in the boat

And then back in your arms

Let me cry to the wind
I know you need me babe
Regardless of what you say

Oh I, I know you see it, and I know you ll see it my way, my way
I ll know you ll see it, and I know you ll see it my way
I know you ll see it baby
