G

Just swing across the southern sky

C/G G
And lift a match to my morning eye

C B D G
Well we ll all die young if we re lucky babe

G
You d hate the dark to prove the dawn

C/G
Need me no more and I ll be gone

G C B D Em
I m dieing to love somebody like you love him

D D7
And you look just like my darling Tennessee

G Am
Do you think she ll know me

C G
Or see me now like the broken man I am

D Em
Doing a little bit more than the best I can

C D G
Still she s gonna need a little more

So cast your light into my room
Kiss me deep or I m leaving soon
Well we re far too young to be dieing now
Just draw me down with every word
Til we find out what we deserve
I know I can not pay my debtors fee
But you look just like my darling Tennessee
Do you think she ll know me
Or see me now like the broken man I am
Doing a little bit more than the best I can
Still she s gonna need a little more

D G
I would stand in disgrace
D G C
I would spit in my saviors face
D G
My coat tattered and torn
D G C
Just to know that our love will be reborn
C/G G C
And our days pass like autumn wind
C/G G C
And the world spins around me again
D C G
And you look just like my darling Tennessee
