Melanie
Cosmic Rough Riders

```
E                    A
I think Melanie s great
            E         A
But I miss you
E                     A
I hate living this way
          E           A
Without you
     E                    A
Well I think Melanie s great
       E                  A
But I miss you

E                    A
Flying out to New York
            E     A
To be with you
E           A
Customs at JFK
                  E          A
Wouldn t let me through
        E                 A
They put me back on the plane
             E            A
What can I do?

       F#m
They say you need a reason
       B
A someone to believe in
      A
I said my only reason was you
  F#m
Yeah I got a reason
       B
To breath out and to breath in
    A                        B
I only wish that I could get through

E                    A
Flying out to New York
            E     A
To be with you
E             A
```

```
Customs at JFK
                E         A
Wouldn t let me through
      E                   A
They put me back on the plane
            E             A
What can I do?

      F#m
They say you need a reason
      B
A someone to believe in
    A
I said my only reason was you
 F#m
Yeah I got a reason
      B
To breath out and to breath in
    A                         B
I only wish that I could get through

F#m                 C#m
I was unsure if I wanted to stay
    A                 E
I never shoulda let you go
F#m               C#m
All I know is I need you today
    A                     E
I don t know how to let you know

E                 A
I think Melanie s great
          E       A
But I miss you
E                 A
I hate living this way
        E         A
Without you
      E                   A
Well I think Melanie s great
    E                     A
But I miss you

      E
They say you need a reason
    A
To breath out and to breath in

(Repeat last two lines to fade)
```