Counting Crows

A GOOD YEAR FOR THE ROSES
COUNTING CROWS

STANDARD TUNING
NO CAPO

INTRO: C

VERSE:

C

I can hardly stand the sight of lipstick

F

C on the cigarettes there in the ashtray.

Lying cold the way you left them,

F

but at least your lips caressed them

C

C7

while you packed.

F

Or the lip print on a half-filled cup of coffee that you poured

and didn't drink.

G

But at least you thought you wanted it

C

which is so much more than I can say for me.

CHORUS:

F

G

It's been a good year for the roses

C

Many blooms still linger there.

Dm

G

The lawn could stand another mowing

C

it's funny, I don't even care

F

G

But as you turned and walked away

C

As the door behind you closes

Dm

G

The only thing I thought to say

is what a good year for the roses

VERSE:

After three, four years of marriage
it s the first time that you haven t made the bed
I guess the reason we re not talking, is there s so little left to say that we haven t said
While a million thoughts go racing through my mind
I guess I haven t said a word
From the bedroom, the familiar sound of our one baby s crying goes unheard

CHORUS:

It s been a good year for the roses F G
Many blooms still linger there. C
The lawn could stand another mowing Dm G it s funny, I don t even care C
But as you turned and walked away F G
As the door behind you closes F C
The only thing I thought to say Dm G is what a good year for the roses F C
