Raining In Baltimore Counting Crows

Em C D Bm7

This circus is falling down on its knees

Em G D Bm7

The big top is crumbling down

Em C D Bm7

It s raining in Baltimore fifty miles east

Em C D Bm7

Where you should be, no one s around

C G
I need a phone call
C G
I need a raincoat

C C C

I need a phone call

These train conversations are passing me by And I don t have nothing to say You get what you pay for But I just had no intention of living this way

I need a phone call
I need a plane ride
I need a sunburn
I need a raincoat

D C

And I get no answers

D C

And I don t get no change

D C G

It s raining in Baltimore, baby

D G D

But everything else is the same

There s things I remember and things I forget I miss you I guess that I should Three thousand five hundred miles away But what would you change if you could?

I need a phone call Maybe I should buy a new car
I can always hear a freight train If I listen real hard
And I wish it was a small world
Because I m lonely for the big towns
I d like to hear a little guitar

I think it s time to put the top down

I need a phone call

I need a raincoat
