Save the Whales by Country Joe MacDonald

Bm A
When my grandpa was a boy, he went down to the general store
Bm A Bm
Saw a picture book of whales, shooting their spouts and flashing their tails
Bm A
Then he got a sailor s dream about cruisin around on the salty sea
Bm A Bm
Joined up with a fishin crew to go out and get him a whale or two
Bm A
Tell me what kind of men are these who sail upon the salty seas
Bm A
Up in the riggin in the afternoon, swabbin the decks and Bm
sharpening harpoons

CHORUS:

Bm
Hooray and up she rises
A
Hooray and up she rises
Bm
Hooray and up she rises
A Bm
Early in the morning

There s lots of whales in the deep blue sea and we kill them for the industry
We drag em along side and cut em in two and melt em down and sell it to you
There hardly is a sailor alive who can keep the tears from his eyes
As he remembers the good old days, when there were no whales to save
Now we can thank the companies for scouring the deep blue seas
Looking for ivory and perfume and oil to light your living room

Shanghaied by the light of the moon, put up in Boston in the middle of June
After six months I left the sea, nothing but death and misery
Set out on a 3 year cruise, a union ship and a union crew
After six months you begin to see, whaling s not what it used to be
A modern ship and a modern crew with sonar scopes and exploding harpoons
A mechanincal boat made out of steel and a floating machine gun to kill the whale

CHORUS

Repeat first verse
