WHERE ARE YOU TONIGHT?

written by M. Timmins and The Cowboy Junkies, from the album Caution Horses
submitted and transcribed in June 1998

[tab] C Am F C
There s a young man in the corner, playing crazy all night long.[/tab]
[tab]C F G
Quarters piled high upon the table.[/tab]
[tab] C Am F C
And he orders Wild Turkey with a quick wit and a smile.[/tab]
[tab] C Am G
He says "my darling, you re the one I ll drape in sable."[/tab]
[tab] C Am F C
But his baseball cap, and his barroom rap tell me a different story[/tab]
[tab] Am F G
That this is not my prince to grant all my wishes[/tab]
[tab] C Am F C
Just another lonely country boy, grown weary of the night.[/tab]
[tab] C Am G
Just another boy, with a sink full of dirty dishes.[/tab]

[tab]Am F
And where are you tonight?[/tab]
[tab]Am F
When I left you in my dreams last night,[/tab]
[tab] C G F
You promised me that we would be breaking free.[/tab]
[tab]F G Am
Where are you tonight?[/tab]

[tab] C Am F C
And he tells me of the backroads, and I will ride them all night long.[/tab]
[tab]C Am G
And the days of fate and the moon will hang forever.[/tab]

[tab] C Am F C
And a cloud of dust will kick up and linger like a sun. [/tab]
[tab] C Am G
And the myth will grow about the two who refused to surrender. [/tab]
[tab] C Am
But as I catch us in the barroom mirror [/tab]
[tab] F C
with his arm around my shoulder, [/tab]
[tab] C Am G
This girl I see has grown so unfamiliar. [/tab]
[tab] C Am F C
And as she stands to leave with a stranger by her side, [/tab]
[tab] C Am G
She can't help but laugh at a life turned so peculiar, [/tab]

[tab] Am F
And where are you tonight? [/tab]
[tab] Am F
I don't think I can face tomorrow's light, [/tab]
[tab] C G Am (hold)
Not knowing if you'll be there to guide me. [/tab]

[tab] Em F
And where are you tonight? [/tab]
[tab] Em F
I think I can make it through all right, [/tab]
[tab] F Em Am (hold)
But I'd love to have you just one more time beside me. [/tab]

These Cowboy Junkies songs are so cool to play on guitar.
