Em Cadd9 D

The wind has come to take me down a notch,

Cadd9 Em

A peg, or a level or two

Cadd9

The swollen moon has got

D Cadd9

Her sights set on me too

Em Cadd9 D

The devil sun gonna take me higher

Cadd9 Em

Higher than I ever been before

Cadd9

I told my mama, no

D Cadd9

I can't take no more

Em Cadd9 D Cadd9

I can't take no more

Em Cadd9 D

The wind has come to take me down

Cadd9 Em

To the empty farm where I grew up on the land

Cadd9 D

I built this childhood for a boy

Cadd9

With my own two hands

Em Cadd9 D

I look around, them bony trees

Cadd9 Em

And sunken cows, thereâ \in [™]s almost snow

Cadd9

Nobody knows nothing

D Cadd9 Em Cadd9 D Cadd9

Except what me and the crow do know

D G Cadd9

Who am I to change my life?

D G Cadd9

Who am I to fuck with form?

D G Cadd9 Who am I to weather a storm? Cadd9 D Cadd9 But I go slow Cadd9 D Cadd9 I said goodbye to everyone I know Cadd9 D Cadd9 And one morning I awoke And I was this guy named Joe Cadd9 The wind has come to take me down to the field To dream by the light of the moon Cadd9 No, there ain't no coming home, Cadd9 No going back, skipping June Cadd9 Em I sit by the water down by the freeway Cadd9 The cotton is hot and the corn is high Cadd9 Don't know what I'm going to do With myself tonight G Cadd9 Who am I to change my name? G Cadd9 Some things will always stay the same G Cadd9 There really ain't no one to blame G Can't expect nobody to live in that pain D Cadd9 But I know you miss me so D Cadd9 I said goodbye to everyone I know Cadd9 D Cadd9 And one morning I awoke D And I was this guy named Joe...
